IPAS LEADERS TALK WITH MICHELLE FISCHER ON ARC OF INDIANA'S LATEST "A VIEW FROM MY WINDOW"

INDIANAPOLIS, July 7, 2015 – Indiana Protection & Advocacy Services (IPAS) Executive Director, Dawn Adams, and Director of Communication, Jessica Trimble, were interviewed on Arc of Indiana's long running podcast, "A View From My Window," hosted by journalist, Michelle Fischer.

Topics of discussion included an overview of IPAS' mission and the process for getting help if you have been discriminated against or had your rights violated. Ms. Adams talked about her passion for empowering individuals with disabilities to find their voice and fight for their rights.

Ms. Trimble provided an overview of the recent Department of Justice Letter of Findings, which validated IPAS' research that 11 Amtrak stations in Indiana are non-compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act, 25 years after it was enacted.

Ms. Adams encouraged listeners to get involved with IPAS' work, by taking the IPAS 2016 Goal Setting Survey, found here or at this URL: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/IPAS2016Goals>.

The interview is featured in the Arc of Indiana's July 5th Newsletter. You can sign up to receive the newsletter here or at this URL: <http://arcind.org/contact-us/e-newsletter-sign-up/>.
